

Hi Guys! Today in this post i will tell you how you can create a profession blog on blogspot.com in free. And after creating the blog if you are successful to attract and engage users on your blog to then you can also earn money from it.

So first of all you need a gmail id to create blog on blogspot because without a gmail id you can't access blogspot features. To Processed Click Here

If you already have any blog then you can see list of names here. and if you wanna create a new one then click on New Blog button on left side. After clicking on this button you will see below screen.

here you can enter your blog title and address. you can choose these options according to you. sometime the url you are entering can be already used so in this case please use another one.

Blog Title : title of your blog which will appear on title bar

Address : url of your blog which can be used by users to visit your blog ( ex. growwebsite.blogspot.com, food.blogspot.com etc). Because blogspot is a free service so blogspot.com will be added as default in the url. But if you don't wanna add blogspot.com in your url then you have to buy your own domain and have to redirect this to new domain by doing some small changes.
